HE SCORED STUBBS

FARMER SMITH SPOKE OUT IN MEETING AT MC-PHERSON

AND THE CROWD CHEERED HIM

Gave His Ideas on Honest Men. Economy and Railroad Contractors

Chairman Stubbs of the Republican state committee, whose actions for some time have indicated that he is using bipower as State chairman to organize the different counties in the interests of a little senatorial boom which he is build ing for himself, got a pretty severe job at McPherson last week. A disputer from McPherson says of the affair:

"McPherson, Kan., was the icene of an interesting "defi" to the authority of W. R. Stubbs last Saturday night. It was at a meeting called for the purpose of organizing a civic league. Ansel R. Clark, Tom Potter and Stubbs were the

All the speakers condemned the public men of the sta s, denouncing them as being influenced in their public acts by the railroad pass. Mr. Stubbs laid great atress on the magnificent work of the last legislature and as a climax asserted that the best ratiroud law that graced any statute book in this nation was passed at the last session of the Kansas legislature

At the conclusion of Stubbe' speech the chairman of the meeting announced that they would proceed to the organization of a civic league. Blanks were being ciroulated among the audience for that purpose when somebody yelled for "Farmer Smith."

The cry was taken up by the audience and the old man, once speaker of the Kansas legislature, was compelled to go to the stage. When he got started he went for Stubbe in great shape. He pretaced his remarks by saying that he agreed with much that had been said, but disagreed with a great deal that had been uttered. He then suid:

"If there is anything in this world I abbor it is a demago, ue; if there is any thing that I despise it is a coward, and on this occasion it is my purpose to speak my mind re ar in a "1 consequences. The first exception that I desire to take to the speech - that have teen made here this afternoon is their who leaste attack of bird dainties. upon the integrity and that oter of the public men of this state and nation. It partment. Here we sell 'plumage rehas been my privilege to save in the vivers," 'voice clearers,' 'throat Kaneas legislature with mire than 500 different men, and I have met there as good, conscientions, Grd miring men as one be tound in any of the valks of life, men that count not be influenced to do savenic that would be detrimental to the best interests of the people of this great state. In our na nai gisiature It has been my pow lege to snow every man who has repre- to this commonwealth in congress, and with one or two unfortunate exceptions to y were men above suspicton.

"It appears to me that Wr. Stubbe statement of the a complishment of the last i-gleisture, | wal-a I am proud, refutes the impression that he tried to make that our legislature is corrupted by the use of tre passes. He said that the last legislature passed the . railroad law that graced the statutes of any state in this union, and yet it is fair to say that nearly, and perhaps every, man that voted for that magnificent relirond law had a railroad pass in his pocket. It appears to me that this disproves the prevalent idea that men who accept railroad praces are dishonest.
"Mr Stubbs has given some statistics along the line of soonomy in the last legislature. He stated that he had only sixty-three attendants to the house as against more than 200 that the previous delature had. That is a fine showing, but the printing knife could yet have been used to good advantage. When I was the speaker of the house we had only thirty-four attendants in the house. Did you have a clerk for the speaker and a tenographor?"

Mr. Stubbs replied that he did.

ant I had was a pare." The old farmer then took up his record as a railroad fighter in the house in 1885, 1886 and 1881

Artist's Alm Was Perfection.

When Hogarth was almost at the neight of his fame he painted an interior which was somewhat severely criticised by a friend. The artist ao kno wledged the justness of the criticisns, and when his frank friend had left the studio he took a sharp knife, deliberately cut the canvas in two, and then threw the pieces into the coal scuttle. There they were found the following day by one of the maids, who took the pieces home.

"Cash" Godette's Red Sign. Among the prosperous Canadians in ashua, N. H., is one J. B. TOOK OLD GENTLEMAN'S ADVICE

Just the Counsel Fond Lover Was

"The late Bishop Thomas Frederick Davies of Detroit," said a Detroit man, "once told me an interesting story of an elopement. He figured in 'his elopement as the officiating clergyman. It was in Philadelphia, durng his rectorship of St. Peter's.

"It seems that the proprietor of one of the largest dry goods houses in biladelphia had noticed for some nonths the melancholy of his head lerk, a young man whom he held in "The clerk's pallor and increasing 'canness, his frequent sighs and absent-mindedness worried the donaire proprietor. He questioned the young man daily. And finally the plerk admitted to him that he was in

"'Well,' said the head, 'marry her. Your salary is big enough."
"'Ah,' said the clerk sadly, 'you do not understand. She belongs to one of the first families of Philadelphia and her father is a millionaire.'

"Well, maybe he wasn't when he married. You have a good position and a good name. You are a fair match for any girl, said the other. "'It's no use,' sighed the clerk.

Her parents would not listen to me for one moment.' "'Then,' said the other, 'elope with

"Do you advise that?" the clerk asked excitedly.

"'Certainly, I do. Is she do I know her? "'Yes. She will be at your dance at Devon to-morrow night.

"Well, see here, said the head.
I'll have my coachman out in front of my gate at 9:30. Rush the girl off into town and marry her. I'll arrange with a clergyman for you. "'By Jove,' said the clerk, 'T'll do

"And he did. The next night Dr. Davies performed the ceremony and an hour or two later the millionaire ound his daughter missing and was elographing in every direction to the he young couple to come home and il would be forgiven."
